

Press release
on the Occasion of Security Council Visit to Chhauni and MCS 1
Press Release
23 October 2009

On 23 October, Nepal-based Security Council Members visited the Nepal Army Chhauni Barracks and the Maoist Main Cantonment One in Chulachuli, Ilam district.

The delegation inspected the UNMIN monitored weapon storage arrangements in Chhauni Barracks and Chulachuli, and were briefed on the UN Mission's arms monitoring mandate. The delegation also met with representatives of the Nepal Army and the Maoist army.

Ambassador Qiu Guoheng, People's Republic of China; Ambassador Gilles-Henry Garault, France; Ambassador Tatsuo Mizuno, Japan; Deputy Chief of Mission Alexander Khozin, the Russian Federation; Ambassador Andrew Rotely Hall, the United Kingdom; and Chargé d'affaires Jeffrey A. Moon of the United States took part in this visit. They were accompanied by UNMIN Chief Karin Landgren.
